Welcome to NATA 2023!

The 74th NATA Clinical Symposia & AT Expo has officially kicked off! We're excited to spend the next three days in Indianapolis as we celebrate the athletic training profession. This year's theme, "ATs Advance Here," can be seen in several ways – be it the educational programming, networking opportunities or inspirational insights from pioneers and legends in the profession. Connect with your peers from around the world, earn up to 20 CEUs, check out the AT Expo and enjoy these next few days of live events.
